Webster Racing has been winning on the water for the past two decades. With a team of highly skilled professionals, we are ready to take your marketing program to the next level. Mike Webster is a college educated professional race driver. Public speaking / appearances, TV interviews, company functions, and a host of other events is where Mike shines. With Mike behind the wheel and the dedicated group of professionals behind him, this cohesive unit has one mission, representing you the only way they know how, as a champion! And Mike can relate to your target demographic, he also paints the boats!
